Alcohol and Drug Prevention Services – Description

ALCOHOL AND DRUG NONRESIDENTIAL SERVICES (Community Prevention and Recovery Program) (Prevention)

Alcohol and Drug Nonresidential Services are those alcohol and drug recovery services which are provided in a drug-free, non-drinking environment, directed towards alleviating and/or preventing alcohol and drug problems among individuals, or participants, pregnant and parenting women and their children, families, specific population groups, or the general community, which does not require residency at a provider's facility as part of the treatment and recovery process. Services may include, referral of a participant for medical detoxification services, residential and recovery house services, methadone treatment program services, psychiatric services, or other treatment services.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG PREVENTION SERVICES

Alcohol and drug prevention services seek to prevent/reduce alcohol and other drug related problems within the community by encompassing a broad range of strategies that include community organizing and empowerment, alternative activities, environmental/social policy, information dissemination, prevention education/skills training, and problem identification and referral. Each strategy is designed to prevent/reduce alcohol and other drug related problems within the community.
